TOM PHIPPS

Well Tom we are half way home. Just think next year we'll be mighty lower classmen of the upper classmen.
Remember when we got kick out of basketball sorta funny.
Good luck next year and the following year in high school.
Good luck in Basketball.

Tom
We've had a lot of fun together in Mr. Fryers room this year and it has left my
a lot of good memories.
I hope that you have a lot of fun this summer and you must be good boy this summer or you will get into much trouble and maybe won't even be able to turn out for basketball
Good Luck

As you can see my writing is a little shaky
I haven't got over that last golf tournament. Take it easy this summer & in church basketball next year.
Work hard to get in shape before school golf starts & we might be able to play a complete hole IDEA let's pool our money & buy a golf cart & then we could play two holes. Take it easy this summer &
don't work hard.
Buena suerte!

Tom
It's been great
having you in Study Hall. I hope you can stand it next year in third year
Spanish with Fat Boy
"Paul"

Tom,
I can't wait til you get the "283" in. I'll really be a romper then.
I hope we have some fun together next year. Have fun this summer and be sure to earn enough money for a "283". Good luck in the future.
Shy Downs

By the way that reminds me, see you in 3rd year
Spanish, we will really give to the old Fat Man
See ya.
Mark Smalley

Hi Tom,

We're almost juniors and I can hardly wait. Then we'll have the best class president in history in office. you! The doors always open and you're welcome (even if you need an invitation to come, but I thought I'd make it seem normal). Hope we'll be in some classes together next year, seemingly we had such fun in Hazen's class. Best of luck to ~~you~~^{you} in the future in everything you do. Thanks for all of your wonderful help at the Nat in every thing you've done. Hope to see ^{you} some time this summer.

Always,

Well Tom,
 I kinda gave you a run for your money in the Bear's class this year. I think I had more browns except when it came for deciding on a test. O well, you can't win 'em all. I've had a lot of fun knowing you this year and I hope to have you in some classes next year. Lots of luck in the future in everything you do. A friend of good this summer, and luck next year. Jay

Well I am your one person whom I have to admit I feel some devotion to. Not every person has a nickname like yours and is proud of it. Any thing that is really something for you just let me know. Why I even know you a nice good guy and a great thing.

Foreword

Today's Education Builds Tomorrow's Foundation

Preparing today for Tomorrow

"Today's education builds tomorrow's foundation." These words echo in the ears of each senior who carries his cap and gown to graduation practice. Each one realizes he has only a few days to meet this challenging motto. These few words, chosen by the class of '62 just four years ago, assume a new significance as each class member gazes anxiously into the unknown.

But even though he feels a little insecure for a few minutes, every senior, and each student for that matter, knows that the REAL answer to the future is provided here at MVHS where today's education has helped him build tomorrow's foundation.

It's been 40 years since Mount Vernon High School District opened the doors of this building. It's been 40 years of growth and improvement — years of graduating young people who have become our community leaders.

As we present this, the 1962 Skagina, let us hope that 40 years from now you will look back happily on your school years.

As the editors of the 1922 Skagina wrote in the foreword of their book, "If, when you look over this book many years from now, you have the feeling that you are living again the days of ('62), then we may feel . . . this book is a success."

Much training and practice are required to produce an expert tennis man.

Matters of importance are discussed in this play picture.

Tom,

Homecoming was a special event as can be seen by the crowd at the game.

Tommy (T.),
 This year has gone
 by so quickly, we haven't had much time to talk. The "B" class was lots of fun, hope we get him again next year. Hope we can get lots of classes together next year. Someday this summer we have to go up to the lake and stay all nite. Best of luck in your last two years in high school. Have lot of fun this summer but remember don't get drunk every nite, like you did during the school year. See you next fall at school.

The office of the principal is the center of life in the school, dominating the teachings of the four years in highschool.

School Board and Administration Plan and Carry

Superintendent W. T. Phipps

Principal William E. Gurney

Meeting once each month, the school board discusses problems of the public school system. Seated at their conference table, above, are: Halfdon Tronsdal, Roger Morrison, Gladys Larson, Earl Hanson, Chairman Dr. Harry Worley, Eldon Wiggs, Elmer Berg, Malcolm Glover, Rex Wilson, and Marion Kenney. It is their responsibility to guide and direct the high school district which is composed of Mount Vernon School District, #320, and the Conway School District. Members from Conway are Mrs. Larson, Mr. Berg, Mr. Tronsdal, Mr. Morrison, and Mrs. Kenney. Those members from Mount Vernon are Dr. Worley, Mr. Hanson, Mr. Glover, Mr. Wiggs, and Mrs. Wilson.

These are the pages of memories — 1961-62. This is the year that we first had a thousand students. Over 200 graduating seniors and over 300 freshmen. — Yes, and we put new doors in the main building — added rooms to the gymnasium and sidewalks to the campus.

While the radios are hammering out "Big John," the "Space Needle" and the Monorail remind us that John's day is literally past and a new age has come. — They are calling it Century 21.

These are the visible records but underneath them we have grown another year mentally, morally, and spiritually toward the fulfillment of our dreams — and our goals. Rich, carefree, vital — this high school life — these memories — 1962.

William E. Gurney

Out New Ideas to Improve Our Educational System

The administration has the responsibility to expand school curricula, improve facilities, and recruit the teaching staff. During the past year much has been accomplished.

The administration has enjoyed a pleasant year working to improve the educational opportunities for the more than one thousand young people enrolled in the Mount Vernon high school.

To a well-trained and experienced staff, new instructors have been added in several subject areas.

New classrooms, a complete music department, and a modernized library help house one hundred twenty-five additional students.

The students of Mount Vernon High School are fortunate to live in a country and a community that offer an opportunity to everyone who will accept the challenge to educate himself.

Policy and desire dictates that the school board works untiringly with the community and the professional staff to keep the schools at a high level of educational service.

The board will devote many hours of additional time this year in planning for the proposed new sciences and arts building provided for by a bond levy in 1960.

In addition to their usual problems, the board is joining with lay citizen groups to study means for improving and expanding the curricula.

As We Set Our Courses to the Corners of the World —

Mathematics

"The Language of description" is what mathematics is called at Mount Vernon High School. Successful courses in mathematics teach students to think clearly, using their powers of reasoning to face daily life as well as classroom situations. If a knowledge of mathematics is useful only in classroom arithmetical calculations, mathematics would not be an important area of study. However, it is increasingly evident each day that mathematics has a major role in modern society. People who attempt to compete in a highly technical society must have a good foundation in mathematics, for without such knowledge they are severely handicapped. Thus Mount Vernon High School plans to add to its curriculum a course for Senior students lacking a good background in mathematics, giving them a last opportunity to prepare themselves for intelligent existence in our fast-moving society.

Science

In the hope that students of MVHS will acquire an appreciation for several areas of science, courses in biology, chemistry, physics, earth science, and electricity are offered. Teachers attempt to demonstrate the effectiveness of scientific thinking, a reasoning process in which memorized facts are important only when they can support or refute a theory. High school science study is valuable to the college-bound student and essential to students who leave high school and enter a society in which every individual must be well-informed, with a wide basic background in a variety of fields. Such a background can make each person a more useful, intelligent citizen.

It takes a lot of concentration to get a geometry assignment done correctly; sophomore Allene Ward, above left, can testify to that. Classroom time just isn't enough — it takes a few hours at home each evening, too. After Allene has learned the necessary theories, she will find many of her problems easier to answer. She is a student in Mr. Reiman's class.

Working mathematics can be fun — especially when you use some of the devices that help solve problems. Gay Polson, Mary Rygmyr, and Curt Wylie, sophomore students in Mr. Ravnick's geometry class, demonstrate a special problem to their classmates to prove the point.

Dissecting a frog is fascinating work, and if you don't believe it, ask Mark Swanson and Chris Hanson who are shown here working in biology lab. In addition to such interesting tasks as this, MVHS biology students in Mr. Bogar's and Mr. Sundean's classes study microscopic, plant, and animal life. They start with protoplasm and end their year's work with the study of man.

Music and Art

Music provides an interlude in the day of many students who take one class to relax with music. Besides developing musical talent and an appreciation for good music, students have fun working in groups and learning self-discipline. Students are shown ways in which their study of music can be put to use.

Art gives the student the opportunity to express himself with creative skills in drawing, painting, and claywork. Students are acquainted with a variety of artforms and learn to judge their values wisely. To every student, art suggests interesting and rewarding hobbies.

Library

Mount Vernon High School's remodeled library is being used for reference and by those in search of reading recreation. The library subscribes to magazines and newspapers and supplies motion pictures and records for supplementary classroom work. Library hours also have been expanded this year.

Enjoying just one of the new books in the library are Myrna Hull and Mike Felt. On the right, Kayren Hammond and Tom Linder are working with plaster of Paris in one of Mr. Fisher's art classes.

History

World and U.S. History are designed to give students a background for understanding the world around them. In the former they study ancient civilizations and their contributions to today's life, while in U.S. History and Government they get a thorough knowledge of the beginnings of our Nation and the growth of our form of government democracy. In both courses they gain an appreciation for our present day world and our way of life, through the study of what our world was, in years gone by.

Speech

Freshmen at Mount Vernon High School take a speech course for one semester. During this time they give speeches and develop poise and control in front of an audience. Their time is spent demonstrating a process, selling an idea, or trying to convince their audience of a particular point of view. Twice weekly English classes are included in this class.

Speech courses enable students, such as Pam Mitchell to "think on their feet." By preparing and giving speeches, students learn to speak intelligently, organizing their ideas into logical patterns so that the audience can fully understand them.

English

The Mount Vernon High School English department teaches students to use their own language as educated people should. English teachers hope to interest their students in reading all kinds of books. Students are taught to express themselves clearly and capably, making their written ideas understandable to others.

Education — Our Preparation for an Improved Future

Languages

Latin, French, and Spanish are offered at Mount Vernon High School. Each has a special value.

Latin, although no longer spoken by the people of any single country, is not a "dead" language as is generally believed. Miss Lisle's Latin students not only learn the bases of words, but also add to their knowledge of ancient history.

French, an important language in Europe as well as in Asian or African countries, is made interesting for students because Mrs. Brooke, Mount Vernon High School's French teacher, is acquainted with French attitudes and customs. French students enjoy talking with each other in their adopted language, using the language lab, listening to tapes and practicing French pronunciation.

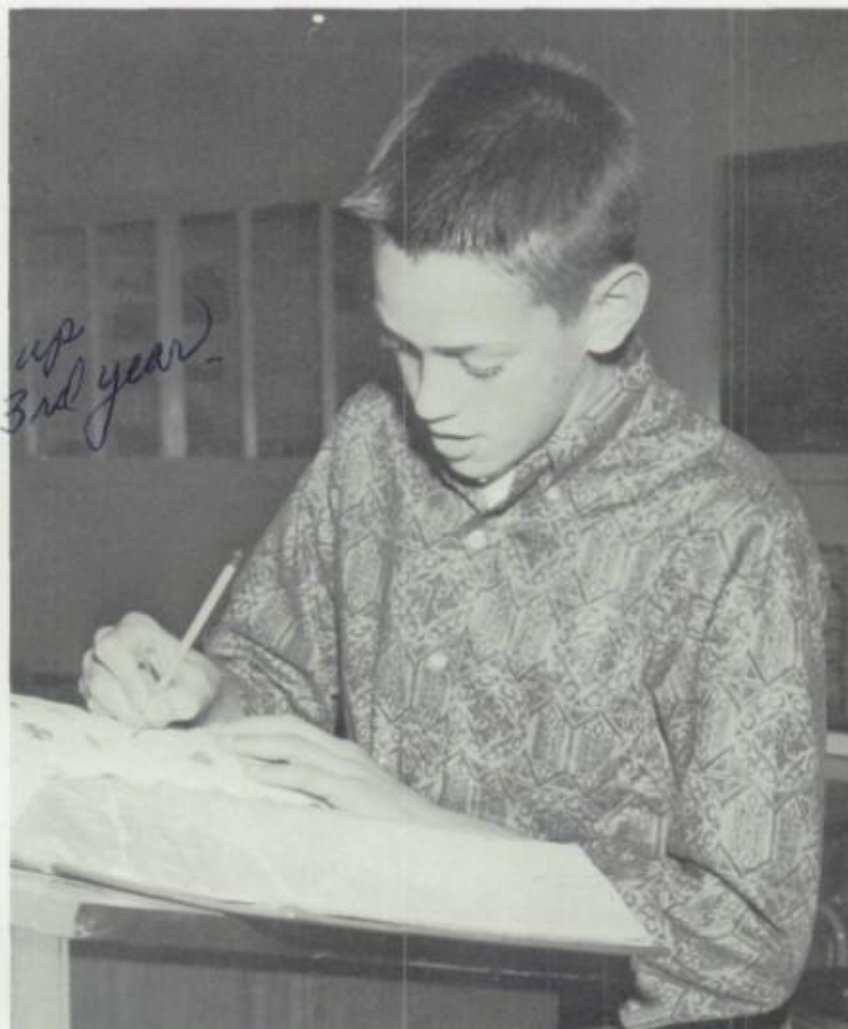

Students of Spanish at MVHS have spread their own version of the language they are learning. Almost everyone has a few Spanish words on hand. Miss Hofer and Mr. Fryer, Spanish teachers, have visited Mexico, and can bring to life the old-world atmosphere found only a few miles from the southern borders of the United States. Mr. Fryer introduces his classes to Mexican people and their way of life through slides and photographs he has taken and interests his students in visiting Mexico and Latin America.

"Hable usted espanol, Ann Hoag?" This phrase is just one of hundreds that foreign language students at Mount Vernon High School hear on a recorder in the sound booths in Annex 3. These booths are something comparatively new in teaching and have proved quite successful since their installation in Mount Vernon.

Business

Goals of the business department are the development of the basic skills of the business world: typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping. Students are directed into channels in which they will be able to conduct their personal business intelligently.

With the exception of shorthand, which is taught at both beginning and advanced levels, most business courses serve as only introductions to job possibilities connected with the business world. Although none of these courses are required for graduation, many students take typing because they consider it an essential in college work.

The business department attempts to give each student the ability to choose wisely and prepare properly for his career.

Vocations

Many students take advantage of the two industrial arts courses offered at Mount Vernon High School: wood-working and mechanical drawing. In wood-working they learn to use tools and machines and working with their teacher, complete a chosen project. As future consumers of industrial products, students learn to recognize and appreciate high standards of quality and workmanship.

Those with interest and ability are shown the job opportunities available to them in our industrial economy.

A steady eye and a skillful hand are needed to guide a band saw, as Terry Norris and Dan Vopnford learn in woodshop. Care, precision, and a lot of fun carve out each semester's projects. Now is the time for all good men . . . Judy Lovelace shows concentration as she practices this familiar exercise in first year typing.

Home Economics

In Home Economics courses offered at M.V.H.S., girls prepare for a challenging career: that of the housewife. They learn basic skills in cooking and sewing, besides gaining experience in home management, budgeting, and baby care. Freshmen learn basic fundamentals in cooking and sewing, while sophomores do advanced work.

Visits from hair stylists, industrial home economists and demonstrators, and salesladies who describe the uses of many different types of products, vary the classroom routine, and liven interest in many areas of home economics. Students are encouraged to judge goods and services wisely, because this ability can enable a girl to manage a household efficiently.

Physical Education

Physical education classes provide fun and relaxation for students. The major purpose of physical education courses, however, is to condition and strengthen the body. Students learn the thrill of competition, and the importance of courtesy and good sportsmanship.

In P.E. classes, the importance of personal cleanliness and grooming is emphasized and students are taught to better understand themselves and those around them.

Sew a fine seam . . . and that's what Pat Flannigan is doing in freshman home economics class. The girls start with aprons and develop their skills until they can complete a dress.

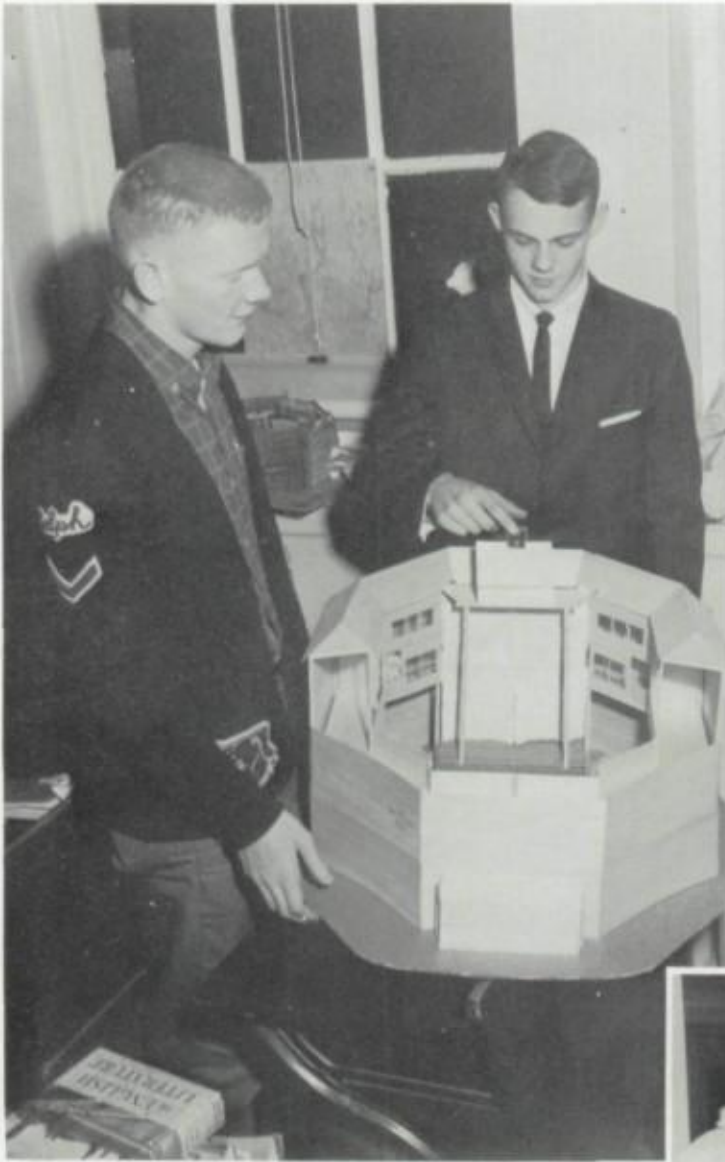

Keeping slim and trim, Melody Libby and the freshman girls in physical education classes spend several weeks on calisthenics.

PERRY BROWN — Washington State University B.S., P.E., History, Health, Assistant Football Coach, Head Swimming Coach. MONA KENDALL — Western Washington State College B.S., P.E., G.A.A. Adviser.

KATHLEEN KNOWLES — University of Washington B.A., P.E., Pep Club Adviser. JAMES THRASHER — Central Washington State College B.A., M.A., P.E., Assistant Football, Wrestling, and Track Coach.

Learning Today for Tomorrow

Senior English students in Mrs. Chicoratch's class worked on special projects in connection with English literature. Ralph Jewell and Jerry Nelson built a scale model of the Globe Theater.

Typing is an art, especially with Pat Wardenaar, Gene Young, and Sharon Bonner, students in Mrs. Hodson's advanced typing class.

Audio-visual helpers working with Mrs. Torrell in the projection room are Leo, Herrell, Doss, Matheson, Helde, Hansen, Gray, Allan, Johnson.

Flower arranging was just one of the projects that Miss Ziegler's home furnishings class worked on this year. Discussing the possibilities of dried material are Paula Snyder, Louise Johnson, and Barbara Raymond, SEATED.

These Many Hands Keep the School Running Smoothly

Efficient and helpful are Mrs. Herrell, clerk and Mrs. Holmes, secretary to the principal.

Those aiding administrators in the superintendent's office are Mrs. Shaw, Miss Anderson and Mrs. Van Valkenburg.

Safe driving is the code of these bus drivers: Homan, Frank, Pearson, Donkelaar, Shadle, Husby, Gutierrez, Ervine, Bell, Coffler, Jones, Peterson, Wiles, Pollock, Hill, Knight, Anderson, Francis, Armstrong.

Those who keep our school so neat and clean are Custodians Fleck, Nelson, Anderson, Swartts, and Snyder.

Students can thank Mrs. Poppe and Mrs. Seidel for the delicious meals served in the cafeteria.

The modern library facilities are a popular place for students preparing for classes.

We Build Toward Tomorrow

Traditional gold rings with green stones were worn during highschool by the class of '62 in the style they chose their freshman year. The class pin was chosen in their senior year as a new addition to MVHS class emblems.

"The Littlest Angel" was presented by the senior class for the annual assembly before Christmas. Doris Bergman played the Littlest Angel who wanted, more than anything, to visit the Christ child on Christmas eve. She was assisted by JoEllen Day as Mary, John Dean as Joseph, Jerry Nelson, Dennis Boner, and Bob Gray as the three kings, Maureen Finley as narrator, and the senior Chansonettes as a choir of angels.

Senior advisors, above, were: Miss Knowles, Miss Lisle, Mr. Hayden, Mrs. Chicoratic, Mr. Copner, chairman, Mr. Easton, Mrs. Gurney, Mr. Beasley, and Mr. Parker. Missing was Mr. Thrasher.

Seniors

In 1958 the class of '62, the largest entering class in Mount Vernon history, got into the full swing of high school life with Darcy Gearhart elected president; Ann Schneider, vice-president; Janie Hermanson, secretary; and Chuck Gordon, treasurer.

The frosh football team was undefeated, their basketball team was a champion one, and their wrestlers took second place in the district.

As sophomore, the class elected Chuck Gordon, president; Mary McIlraith, vice-president; Kristy Sather, secretary; and Duane Holmes, treasurer.

The first members of the class to win their letters were football players John Slostad, Clint Stroebel, and Wes Snowden. Jerry Pelland starred on the basketball team which took second in the Northwest League while the wrestlers went to the state tournament. Cross-Country, a new sport that year, found Vic Rasmussen, Dave Olson, and Don Vanderpol as lettermen.

The junior class officers were President Gary Stewart, Vice-president Mike Rimmer, Secretary Nancy Swanson, and Treasurer Bruce Parkinson. From the junior class Janie Hermanson and Sara Sprouse were elected yell leaders and Mary McIlraith, Maureen Finley, and Ann Schneider, song leaders.

The football team again took the Northwest League Championship and the Homecoming class princesses were Jane Cornwall and Linda Carlson. The Mount Vernon basketball team took fifth place in state. The wrestlers also had a tremendous season with a 13 to 0 record. Jan Jaeger was elected assistant treasurer of the Associated Student Body, and Joan Van Slageren won a special biological scholarship to summer school in Oakland, California. Janie Hermanson and Vic Rasmussen were MVHS royalty at the junior prom.

The first sign of the new reigning class was the freshly painted "62" on the water tower. ASB officers were Doug Hansman, president; Sara Sprouse, vice-president; Mary McIlraith, secretary; and Jan Jaeger, treasurer. Class officers were Evan Hansen, president; Bruce Parkinson, vice-president; Joan Van Slageren, secretary; and Jim Shelby, treasurer. The Girls' Club was led by Darcy Gearhart. Senior cheerleaders were Nancy McSpadden, Joanne Sparks, Ann Wilson, Susie Wotherspoon, and Ruth Wright.

Homecoming royalty was Queen Janet Bustad and her court, Shirley Iversen and Nancy Swanson, and Senior Ball, Queen Janie Hermanson and King Jan Jaeger. The class assembly, "The Littlest Angel" was held before the Christmas holiday.

The new year went fast and soon the senior sneak was a thing of the past, graduation night was gone . . . our high school days were over.

Senior Honor Students Enjoy Privilege of Being

Six Commencement speakers will be chosen from these top ten seniors, from top: Phipps, Seiler, Holmes, Smith, Boner, McIlraith, Hayton, Finley, Bergman, Holte, and Van Slag-eren.

Membership in Torch Society, a national organization, is the aspiration of all high-school students and the reward given to Seniors who have shown achievement in their studies.

This membership in Torch is a goal reached only by students who have maintained a 3.2 or B+ average during every semester of their high school years.

The creators of Torch Society wished to honor hard-working students who complete high school with high academic accomplishment, and to provide a goal toward which all students could work. All over the United States, outstanding students are rewarded with valued membership in an honorary society with only the highest academic standards.

Tom-
How's the big
"6" running?
your car just looks nice since you got it painted.
Best of luck
in your future years at M.U.H.S.
A friend always
Randy
P.S. you ought to see the cones
on our car-
look swift.
Thanks

Selecting a team of officers to lead them was the first action of the class of 1963 as juniors. Ron Karr was named class president; Jock McIlraith, vice-president; Hugh Flanary and Ruth Anne Forbes were treasurer and secretary, respectively; and Mr. Mowrer represented the faculty as head adviser.

Of first importance in the fall was the Thanksgiving assembly, traditionally the responsibility of the junior class. The Rev. Mr. Forbes of Saint Paul's Episcopal Church in Mount Vernon gave the introductory message followed by a salute in song to America's history.

The Junior Prom was one of the social highlights of the year and was attended by students from Burlington, Sedro Woolley, LaConner, Oak Harbor, and Mount Vernon high schools.

Thirty-one juniors were on the Honor Society, and the class was well represented in the school's athletic events. Many varsity letters were earned by boys in the class. Juniors also made their opinions known in student government, shouldering their responsibilities with the vim and vigor typical of the class.

All in all, the juniors had a successful year, and they impatiently await the arrival of their senior year, and then graduation.

Junior Officers for this year are, right: Hugh Flanary, treasurer; Jock McIlraith, vice-president; Ruth Anne Forbes, secretary; and Ron Karr, president.

School work, athletics, activities — all are a part of school life, and members of the class of 1963 played an increasingly important role in all of them. Three Sedro Woolley Cubs were unable to stop Bill

Entering their second year with real enthusiasm the sophomore class elected their class officers. Gay Brazas, president; Nick Snider, vice-president; Nancy Jansen, secretary; and Marcia Watkins, treasurer. Interesting studies and an energetic sports program kept the sophomores busy all year. Among the courses taken by the class of "64" this year were: physical education, English III & IV — a course in composition and understanding composition, world history or world geography. World history stressed important events while geography demonstrates the effects of other countries in our own immediate area.

Able Bulldogs for over a year now, four sophomore boys lettered in fall sports, with several boys making varsity teams in the winter and spring sports. G.A.A. attracted many girls with some getting their white sweaters. The G.A.A. swim team proved strong by defeating last year's sophomore team in the swim meet during the fall.

Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y proved to be popular activities along with Girls' Club.

At last Homecoming was here! Eager sophomores created this second place float showing a Roman emperor, slave girl, and two guards all viewing four dead Oak Harbor Wildcats. Days of work and worry went into the green and white float. School spirit grew, finally the pep assembly, then the float parade. Although a rain storm dampened the float parade, school spirit remained undampened for the victorious Bulldogs. Those riding on the float were Jane Mitchell, Neil Jorgenson, Kitty Collins, Lou Inda Heron, Claudia Henry, Les Wardenaar, Ray Struthers, and Teri Mason not pictured.

It Was Fun . . . Now We Anticipate Our Third Year

With eager anticipation of their future in MVHS, the Sophomores completed an exciting year in their high school life. It was a year of new and varied experiences. Clubs were formed; leaders were chosen. The class contributed to GAA, football, basketball, swimming, cross country, and track. Hours of study began to round out their life scholastically. Forty two students from the class became members of Honor Society, having attained a 3.2 or better grade average. Student Council became familiar to the class as the representative government they will lead in their Junior year. At last, they will be Juniors.

Anxiety and enthusiasm were marks of the entering Freshman class, the largest class in MVHS history. Chosen to lead the class of '65 were Andy McIntosh, president; Allen Beasley, vice president; Joanne Swanson, secretary; and Mike Fisher, treasurer. They are pictured at the right. All four became acquainted with parliamentary procedures and led their class through an exciting year. The class followed tradition and chose their class rings, which they will wear proudly throughout their four years in high school.

The freshman class was welcomed into the school social life by a "slack stomp" sponsored by Girls Club, which was held after the first home football game.

Athletics were an important part of the year also. The girls participated in GAA, earning points toward their letter sweaters. Frosh boys formed an outstanding football team under Coach Jim Beasley, scoring victories over Shuksan, Oak Harbor, Anacortes, Whatcom, and Burlington. The Sedro-Woolley game was their only loss. Their basketball team was also a center of pride for the class.

The first year of high school was successfully completed, and the freshmen looked eagerly forward to their sophomore year.

ACTIVITIES

Just as the main office is the center of faculty instruction, the Associated Student Body office is the center of student activities.

Associated Student Body Officers

Associated Students of Mount Vernon High School are organized for the purpose of promoting interest, assistance, and support of school activities.

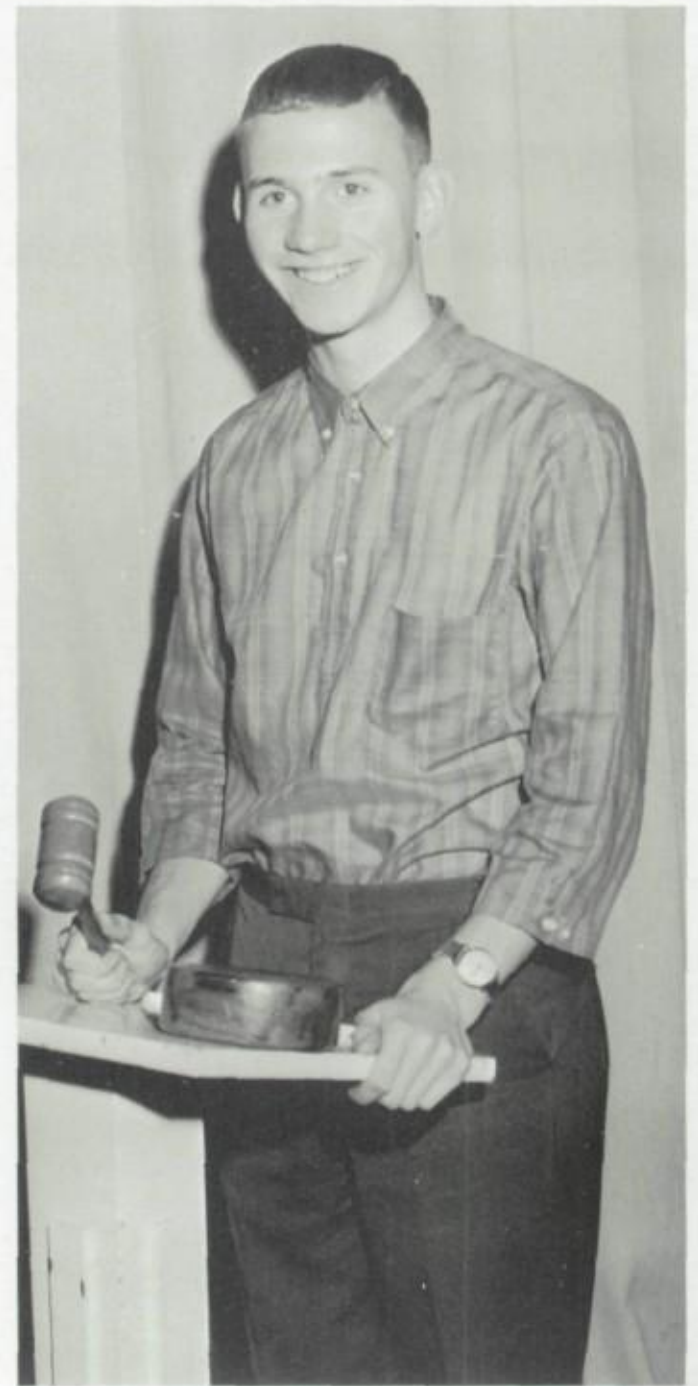

The student council meets once a month with A.S.B. President Doug Hansmann in charge.

First major project of the student body this year was homecoming with Vice-president Sara Sprouse in charge. At Christmas the A.S.B. contributed food, money, and clothes to needy families in the county.

By far the largest task falling to the A.S.B. was the All-School project. It was decided that the money raised this year would bring a foreign exchange student to M.V.H.S. As the donations poured in the dream took a step toward reality as final arrangements were made for a foreign girl to enroll at Mount Vernon High School.

The interest and support shown by everyone contributed to a successful and memorable year at M.V.H.S.

Doug Hansmann, Associated Student Body president for 1961-1962.

A.S.B. officers, below, are LaMay, McIlraith, Hansmann, Sprouse, and Jaeger.

These Many Important Events All Lent a Special

Pep Club and the Senior Class won first places in the contest for best car and float in the Homecoming parade.

The Homecoming royalty, above, took the lead as the float parade began its annual drive which wound throughout our town. Throngs of students participated in the gala event which promoted enthusiasm for the game that night.

Excitement to Our Homecoming

Homecoming week, highlight of the football season at Mount Vernon High School, began on Monday morning, October 23, with the crowning of Queen Janet Bustad and her court. Junior princesses were Linda Harant and Bonnie Hodgins; senior princesses were Nancy Swanson and Shirley Iversen.

Among the activities of the week were the serpentine and the bonfire on Thursday evening.

On Friday, school was dismissed at 1:30 for a pep assembly and car parade. Bursting with pep and excitement, the Bulldogs organized one of the most colorful car parades in the history of MVHS.

That evening, during the first half of the Homecoming football game, rain drenched the spectators and players as the team pounded on the field into a sea of mud. However, the rain did nothing to dampen the spirits of the Bulldogs, who scored before the end of the first half. Just before half-time, the rain stopped and Doug Hansmann, ASB president, introduced the royalty. Art Dedolph, ASB president for the honored class of 1951-52, crowned Queen Janet and her court. The high school band and three majorettes performed for the court.

In the second half the Oak Harbor Wildcats were held in check by a team of determined Bulldogs. As Mount Vernon rooters cheered, the final score flashed on the scoreboard: Mount Vernon 7: Oak Harbor 0.

The class of 1952 was honored at a tea in the library and for the students, the exciting week came to a close with the homecoming dance, "Red Sails in the Sunset." Chairman of Homecoming was Sara Sprouse, ASB vice president.

The presentation of the Homecoming royalty at half-time was a moment of sheer excitement for these five girls. They looked radiant as they rode the beautifully decorated float towards the coronation platform.

Janet Bustad lent a special air of regality when she reigned as queen over our Homecoming festivities. Chosen to reign with her were Nancy Swanson, senior princess, Linda Harant, junior princess, Bonnie Hodgins, junior princess, and Shirley Iversen, senior princess.

Girls' Club Members Work Hard During the Year

Girls' Club officers for this year were, STANDING: Jane Cornwall, treasurer; Kristi Leander, secretary; and SEATED, Getty Hanson, vice president; and Darcy Gearhart, president. The Girls' Club Council, under the leadership of President Darcy, included: Cahill, Moore, Bergman, Cornwall at table left, and Hanson, Leander, Genovese, and Eide SEATED at table right.

MVHS Girls' Club, led this year by President Darcy Gearhart and her fellow officers Jane Cornwall, Kristi Leander, and Getty Hanson, began the active year with the annual BoGi HaPa. During Homecoming, the group held a tea in the library for the graduates of 1952. Girls' Club members filled Thanksgiving baskets for needy families. The Club also contributed to the all-school project, earning money with successful car washes and bake sales. The traditional Christmas program, complete with carol singing, candy canes, Santa Claus, and Christmas baskets was carried out. Members presented their annual Sweetheart dance and donated to the March of Dimes through their interclass Basketball games. The winners in these contests were judged for costuming originality, sportsmanship, and scoring ability.

With spring, club members began to plan for the Girls' Club, Tolo and for the climax of each year's activities: the Mothers' Tea. At this afternoon gathering of girls and their mothers a fashion show, entertainment, and installation of new officers is featured. With the tea, ended a busy productive year for the Girls' Club of MVHS.

Swimming awards for the year were presented to Vickie Carlson, Peggy Cahill and Karen Austin.

High score bowlers were Kay VonMoos and Jill Jaeger, BELOW LEFT. Joan Barker, Marilyn Poppe, Cheri Smith, Gerene Williams, Judy Purcell, and Jill Jaeger, BELOW, were members of the newly formed GAA Council. Joan Franklin and Janice Schopf, not pictured, were also members.

Vice-president Ann Russell, President Maureen Finley and Secretary-treasurer Bev. Hunter were the 1962 GAA officers.

Hiking in the Cascades, winter ski trips and a new constitution helped to make 1962 a full year for the Girls' Athletic Association. A cabinet was formed and a constitution written to assist the rapidly growing club. Proceeds from the presentation of the Cornish Ballet of Seattle went to the all-school project. Members enjoyed their swimming, volleyball, bowling, basketball, badminton, and baseball and so earned their school letter sweaters.

Superior Grades Reward Students in Honor Society

Students whose grade point is 3.2, or above, are eligible to join the Mount Vernon High School Honor Society. This large organization is made up of the "top" sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

This year President Duane Holmes, Secretary-Treasurer Heidi Anderson, and Vice-president Mike Lewis, right, have made the Honor Society a hardworking active group — one of which its members are proud.

These students, who wear those tiny white pins, banded with green, participated in many Student Body activities. They took over the concessions at one of the basketball games and hosted their annual exchange dinner with Honor Society members from Sedro Woolley High School.

Bubbling and bouncing with enthusiasm, the MVHS cheerleaders build school spirit and see that the teams which represent the school in all athletic events never lack support. They are chosen by the student body to conduct yell sessions and to lead the cheering at every game.

to Promote School Spirit for All School Activities

Bright green skirts with matching weskits and monogrammed blouses distinguish the upperclass girls in the Mount Vernon High School Pep Club. This active organization promotes enthusiasm for all MVHS activities and creates interest and pride in the school's athletic events.

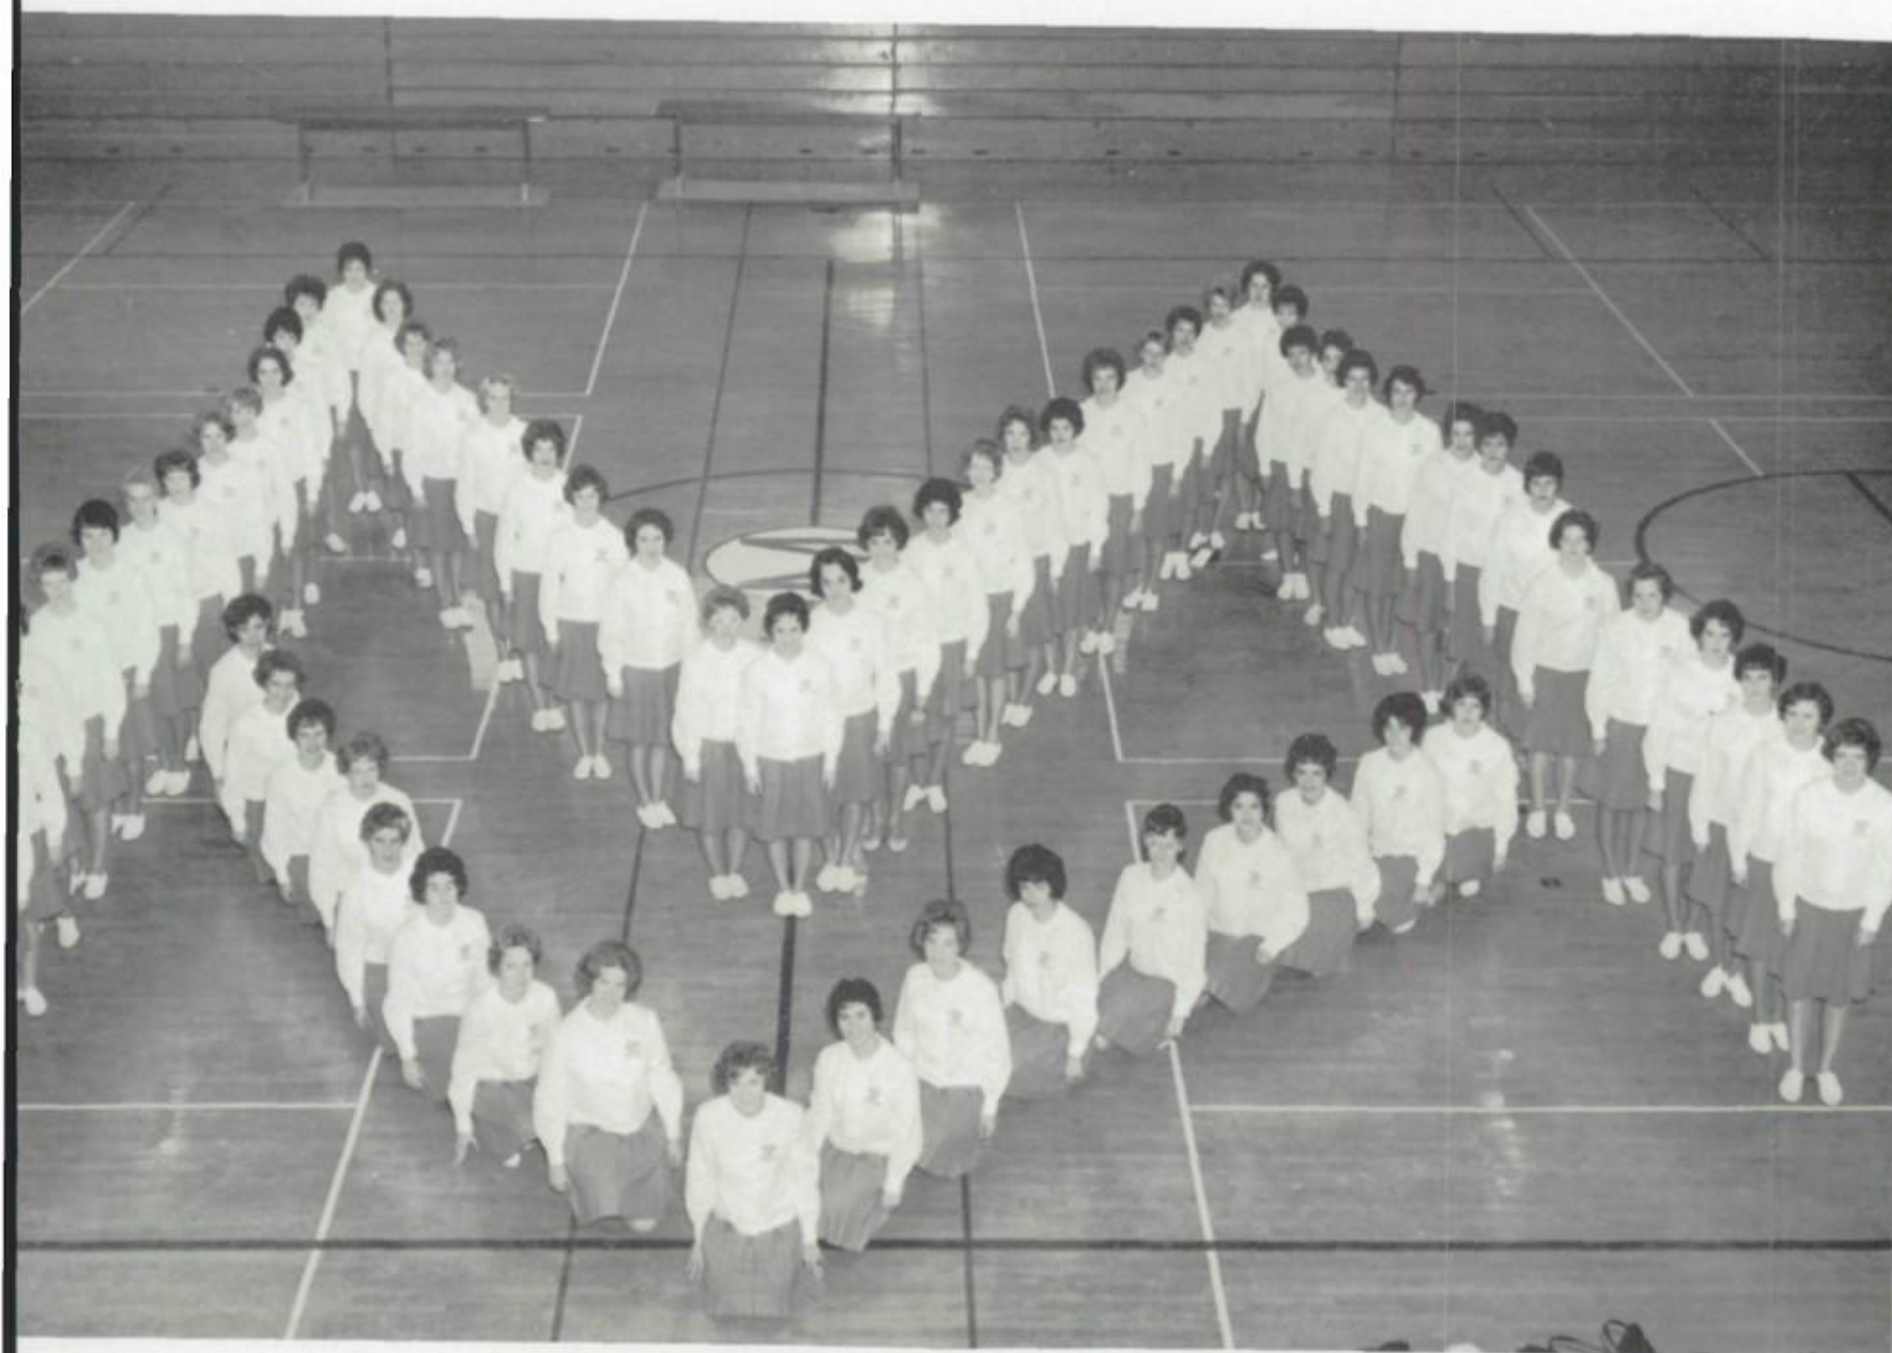

The girls planned their outfits and organized their busy program for the school year during regular summer meetings, ably led by President Jo Ellen Day, Vice President Jane Hermanson, Secretary Shirley Iverson, and Treasurer Kathy Phipps. Pep Club has helped the school by supporting team efforts and by contributing to the all-school project with funds earned in money-making projects. Poster painting and co-operating with the cheer leaders' activities also take the time of this group which works as a team to keep school spirit and quality at a high level.

Four active Tri-Hi-Y groups — Tres Altus, Coble, Brannigan, and Sherwood — are sponsored by the YMCA. They strive to build and extend high standards of Christian character and create interest in the activities offered by the YMCA. Members of these groups look forward to many activities, the chief of which are the annual Pre-Youth Legislature and the Senior Citizens' Christmas Party.

Cutting and selling wood and collecting scrap metal were two of the ways in which this year's Senior Hi-Y worked to earn money to donate to the worthy causes which they support.

Sponsored by the YMCA, the group worked hard on school projects and YMCA activities.

Spanish students now find a practical use for their second language — in their own club, run with a flair for the Mexican customs and traditions with which the club's advisers, Mr. Fryer and Miss Hofer, are so familiar. The Spanish Club, although new, has had a busy beginning. The officers were: Marilyn Poppe, president; Terry McCarthy, vice president; Melody Greve, secretary; Carol Jorgensen, treasurer; and Bev Hunter, sergeant at arms.

Again this year Horizon Club proved to be an important member of the community. Always ready to give energy and ideas to civic and school functions, Horizon Club helped to keep our school strong. Keeping things running smoothly in this important club were: Mary Beth Light, president; Judy Thompson, vice president; Gay Brazas, secretary; and Marjorie Cain, treasurer.

Each One Promotes Academic and Social Enthusiasm

Service Club officers are: Grenier, Smith, and Schuman.

Poster Club officers are: Marnach, Van Pelt, Hill, and Husby.

Members of the Debate team discussing this year's topic with Mr. Davis are: Leander, Landreth, Clem, Johnson, Mitchell, Rudell, Wardenaar, Phillips, and Clausen.

Ushering at all-school functions, taking tickets at the games, and working toward their varsity-sized letter, Service Club members completed another busy and helpful year.

Fashioning "fight" signs from butcher paper and poster paint kept the members of the Poster Club working overtime during the school year. This group of girls who liked to meet informally, had fun while supporting school activities. They kept the halls of the main building gay with posters for dances, games, and school projects.

Journalists Work Hard to Prepare and Record a

Two of the busiest students in MVHS each year are Skagina editors. This year was no exception and Nancy Swanson and Maureen Finley were frequently seen hurrying from place to place to line up pictures or get information. The two young editors attended a three-day conference for annual editors in Bothell last summer. The information obtained there has been a valuable asset to the girls this year.

Seen almost as frequently as the editors throughout the year was Walter Jackson, the Skagina photographer, who covered all of the school's activities. The staff's two very capable advisers were Mrs. Hodson and Mrs. Chicoratic.

Treasure of Memories in Skagina and Bulldog Pages

Quill and Scroll is a national honorary organization for high school journalists. Members must have written 300 inches of copy for a school publication and have been recommended for membership by the secretary-treasurer of the organization. Membership is open to any junior or senior journalist providing he has met these requirements.

Symbol of its fighting teams, the BULLDOG is also the official Mount Vernon High School newspaper. It is a member of the National Scholastic Press Association, Pacific Slope School Press, and International Quill and Scroll. Pat Wardenaar, editor-in-chief, had Mike Rimmer, Casey Jones, Patti Childers, Joe Tedford and Geraldine Leo on her editorial Staff. Mr. Jameson was the adviser.

FHA officers: Wilkerson, Gleesing, Holte, Beath, Soma, and Meyers.

"Toward new horizons" is the motto that guides Future Homemakers of America to their many goals. Uppermost in the minds of FHA members is the desire that future homes will be stronger, more smoothly run and better able to face the future.

Until Miss Nancy Ziegler came to Mount Vernon High there was no local chapter, but in the past two years FHA has become one of the more active groups on the campus. Helping to lead this civic and school-minded club are Sharon Beath, president; Lynn Soma, vice president; Tonnie Meyers, secretary-treasurer; Secelia Holte, reporter; Mary Jean Gleesing, historian and Frances Wilkerson, parliamentarian.

MVHS Students Prepare for Their Futures in Celebrating their thirtieth year at MVHS, the Future Farmers of America Chapter is still helping to train boys in the most modern techniques of farming. The group's aims are to promote better scholarship, leadership, character development, sportsmanship, cooperation, service, organized recreation, and patriotism while emphasizing the importance of the most advanced agricultural practices.

Officers this year were Steve Benson, president; Leroy Werkhoven, vice president; Stanley Nelson, secretary; John Taft, treasurer; Gary Friend, reporter, and Don McMoran sentinel.

FFA officers: Werkhoven, Benson, Friend, Nelson, and McMoran.

Future Teachers of America, a newly formed club at Mt. Vernon High, was capably lead through its first year by Karen Blade, president; Randy Etherington, vice president; Marilyn Poppe, secretary; Gary Walmer, treasurer; and Kathleen Axelson, librarian. Members of the group are interested in teaching as a profession. They plan to work with teachers here and in the elementary school and eventually interest more students in the planning for a teaching career.

Sounds of Music Fill the Air as Mount Vernon High

In almost constant demand for both school and community activities are the Chansonettes; Elde, Roseland, Cooper, Zegstroe, Johnson, Schneider, Bonner, McMullen, Hansen, Lee, Slocum, Bustad, Gearhart.

School Choral Groups Join in Close Harmony

There was an entirely "new look" to the choral department at MVHS this year. Mr. Wright, new director, established three mixed choruses that provide valuable experience in choral work for many students. The young people taking part in these classes are aiming toward membership in the school's select, a cappella choir, which has a permanent membership of 65.

In addition to teaching choral work, Mr. Wright attempts to increase his students' appreciation of all types of music while learning the basic skills of reading and understanding common musical terms.

The Chansonettes and Chevaliers are picked groups of vocalists, who play an important part in the school's musical program. Established for many years, the Chansonettes have an enviable reputation. Performing for the first time this year, the Chevaliers show promise of achieving a like reputation.

The newly-organized Chevaliers are the male counterpart of the girls' choral group. They are Lee, Gray, Highnam, Richardson, Hougen, Boner, Sprague, Olson, VanderPol, Webster.

Soar into Realms of Fantasy Through Music

Under the direction of Mr. Elvin Haley, the Mount Vernon High School band is a top-quality organization with a full schedule of activities. The group participates in many Northwestern festivals, and parades, and represents M.V.H.S. well. The group gives two concerts each year for parents and students of our school, and plans to present a "road" concert in the spring. In addition, the band participates in all pep activities during football and basketball seasons. With the band are several small groups which give the students additional opportunities to work on music of different types other than that played only in the concert band.

Majorettes: Janice Pock, Gwen Dickinson, Frances Hegdahl.

Mount Vernon High School's orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Charles Easton, participates in the annual music festival presented here in Mount Vernon and plays the introductions to all the school dramatic productions. The orchestra, as one of the major projects of the school, provided the instrumental music for this year's musical production South Pacific.

Members of the high school orchestra are: Russell, Carlson, Ward, Benson, Zegstroo, Cox, Easton, Hardy, Kotsogean, Elde.

Comedy Takes the Spotlight in Mystery Thriller

On November 17 and 18, Mount Vernon High School presented Joseph Kesselring's three-act comedy, Arsenic and Old Lace. The play tells the story of two sweet old ladies who poison lonely men to relieve them of worldly burdens. When the old ladies, Abby (Kathy Phipps) and Martha (Mary Husby), unwittingly allow their drama critic nephew, Mortimer, (Doug Hansmann) to discover the body of their latest victim, the resulting complications nearly stop their favorite charity work. The arrival of another nephew, Johnathon, (Leroy Lange) and his henchman (Russ Clausen) threatens to make life difficult for the aunts, until the police step in to stop Johnathon, who likes to do his aunt's charity work for fun.

Abby Brewster and her sister Martha, ABOVE, discuss the Panama Canal with their nephew Teddy over afternoon tea. They are Kathy Phipps, Karl Blade, Mary Husby. Teddy, AT RIGHT, persuades Dr. Einstein to join him on a quick trip to Panama for an inspection of the Panama Canal. Others are Russ Clausen, Karl Blade, Leroy Lange. The crew of Arsenic and Old Lace, BELOW, relaxes on the set: Tom Linder, George Foster, Rithelle Dubay, Kristi Leander, Christine Hanson, Connie Rueb, Joan Barker, Claudia Henry, Pat Wardenaar, Will Shaw, Gary Walmer, Tom Raines.

the South Sea Islands

With "South Pacific," Mount Vernon High School presented its first recent Broadway musical.

Double-cast because of a surplus of fine talent, Jane Cornwall and Sharon Whitlock portrayed the energetic Navy nurse, Nellie Forbush. Romantic leads opposite them were Dennis Boner and Larry Hougen, as the suave French planter, Emile Becque. Ann Russell and Norma Galligher were the irrepressible Bloody Mary. Bob Gray and Gene Young played the "Big Dealer," Luther Billis. A lovely and exotic romance between Liat and Lt. Cable was played by Margery Cain, Ann Hoag, Cliff Highnam, and Darwin Vanderpol.

All the comedy and romance was set against a World War II military background. Steve Tarry and Randy Etherington portrayed the two naval officers, Capt. Brackett and Cmdr. Harbison.

The Rodgers and Hammerstein production was directed by Mr. Wright with Mr. Davis in charge of the staging.

Billis (Bob Gray) is up to more of his pranks at right. His buddy (John Hudson) challenges him as the others (Richard Smith, Will Shaw, Norm Tesch, Scott McKenna, and Fred Lee, standing) look on.

Navy nurses (Katherine Stafford, Sue Danielson, Maureen McMullen, Mary Husby, standing, and Pam Mitchell, Trudy Johnson, Audrey Vanderpol) bring their talent show to a roaring finale at right.

Thespian officers, right, Scott McKenna, secretary-treasurer; Doug Hansmann, president; and John Eells, vice president; lead the group through an outstanding year.

Tom,
 Well, I want you to know that it is really a pleasure being

SPORTS

The "Hall of Fame" for sports is admired by athletes of '62 who hope to be listed among the honored.

The starting Bulldog eleven were, FRONT ROW, Prutzman, Sibley, Slostad, Strobel, Nelson, Snowden, and Johnson. In the BACKFIELD were McIlraith, Vaughn, Montgomery and Rice.

Enthusiasm Runs High As Gridders Complete Season

Although the mighty Bulldogs were never lacking spirit and desire, for the first time in three years they were unable to capture the Northwest AA League Championship. The high spot of the season was the Bulldog victory over the Wildcats of Oak Harbor in the annual homecoming game. Previous to that Oak Harbor had been undefeated and held first place in the league. Playing under a steady downpour during the first half, the Bulldogs picked up their lone touchdown and were able to sustain Oak Harbor in the remaining two periods of play to win 7-0.

Sixteen seniors, including eight who were part of the starting eleven, will be lost through graduation this spring. These are: John Slostad, Wes Snowden, Clinton Stroebel, Jeff Rice, Mike Felt, Dave Prutzman, Jay Nelson, Lynn Axthelm, Evan Hansen, Ralph Jewell, David Haynes, John Dean, Stan Sibley, George Johnson, Ken Thomas, and Greg Hinton. Special recognition was given by the team to John Slostad and Wes Snowden, co-captains, Clinton Stroebel, blocking award, Jeff Rice, inspirational award, and Stan Sibley, gentlemen athlete. John Slostad was named All-Northwest second team tackle, Wes Snowden second team guard, and Clinton Stroebel won an honorable mention guard. Two juniors also received All-Northwest honors. They are Bill Williams, second team halfback and Bill Montgomery, honorable mention quarterback.

Bill Williams (42) is about to down an Anacortes player while Lynn Axthelm (75), Jay Nelson (54), Wes Snowden (62), Stan Sibley (53), and George Johnson (84) are in close pursuit.

Walking away with Norwest District honors for the first time since 1950, the Bulldog basketball squad ended up with an impressive 18—2 record. Their two losses were non-conference games, one to Everett, rated the top AA team in the state, the other to the Lynden Lions, the top-rated A team. Their most important win was over the Burling Tigers. In their final game of the season against Sedro-Woolley, they took an all-time single game scoring record with a 95—59 win.

Bulldogs Top League Tournament

Winning all of their league games and losing only two games throughout the entire season, the Mount Vernon Bulldogs captured first place in Northwest District AA league and compiled an amazing 16—2 record. Coach Bill Lee, in his first year at Mount Vernon, was a major factor in giving Mount Vernon their first league title since 1950.

The regular season's biggest victory was a thrilling 52—50 win over arch-rival Burlington on the Burlington floor. Up to that point Burlington had lost only one league game, but also to the Bulldogs, in a close 49—43 game. Bill Montgomery's jump-shot in the last five seconds of play gave the Bulldogs the victory and the league championship. In the district tourney, the Bulldogs took third place losing to Blanchet, Seattle parochial school champion, in a close contest.

Seven Seniors, four of whom were starters, were on the team. They are Jerry Pelland, Dave Prutzman, Randy Moen, Evan Hanson, Chuck Gordon, Jeff Rice, and Mike Rimmer. Juniors Bill Montgomery, Jerry Ellis, and Jerry Olson will be the backbone of next year's team.

Coach Bill Lee

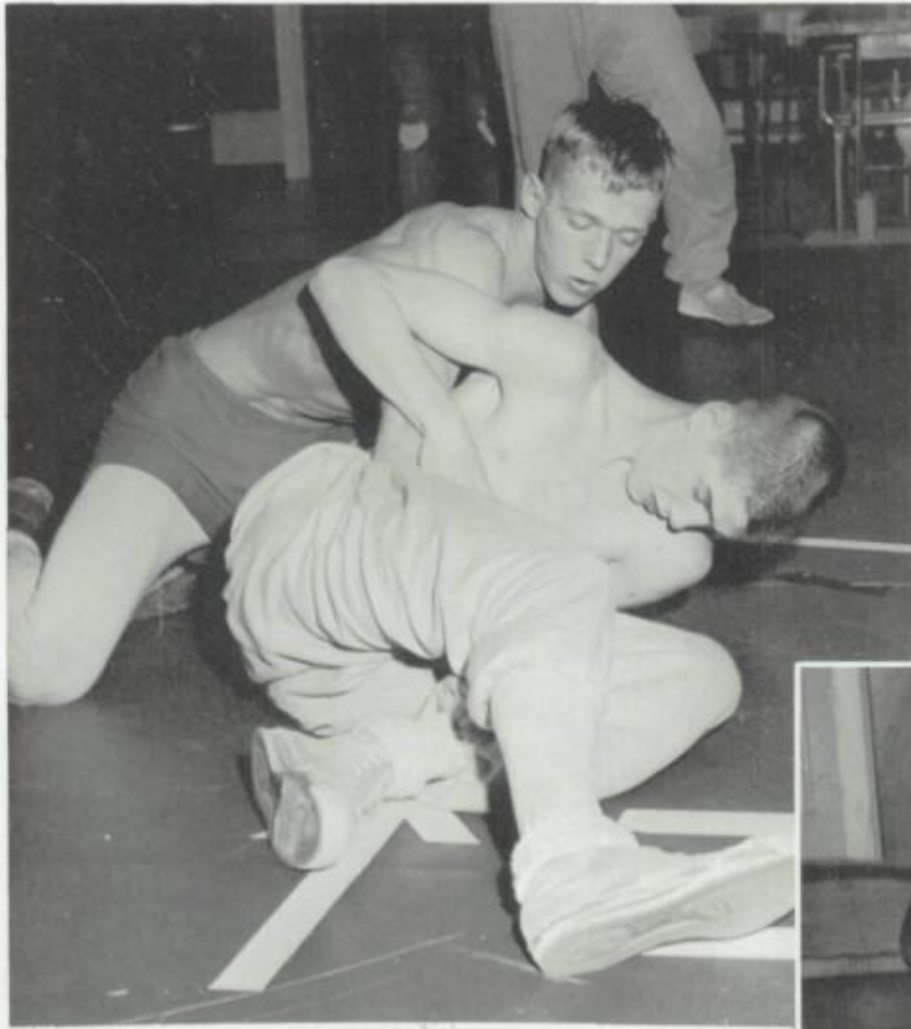

Members of this year's junior varsity team were: FIRST ROW: Coach Hake, L. Von Moos, K. Stuurmans, R. Gudmunson, F. Harke, G. Crawford, J. Dow, M. Mowrer, G. Vaughn. SECOND ROW: R. Roberts, M. Swanson, A. Hendrickson, S. Moen, J. Egan, D. Howson, J. Oftebro, R. Everett, J. Ladesma, H. Kenison.

On the freshman team were: FIRST ROW: E. Snyder, B. Rimmer, C. Raymont, A. McIntosh, R. Hansen, D. Olsen, D. Williamson, J. Deleane, Coach Beasley. SECOND ROW: A. Beasley, H. Brookins, D. Spane, H. Ladesma, J. Bergstrom, R. Swedeen, G. Allen, D. Abrahamson, J. Hammer, N. Spragg.

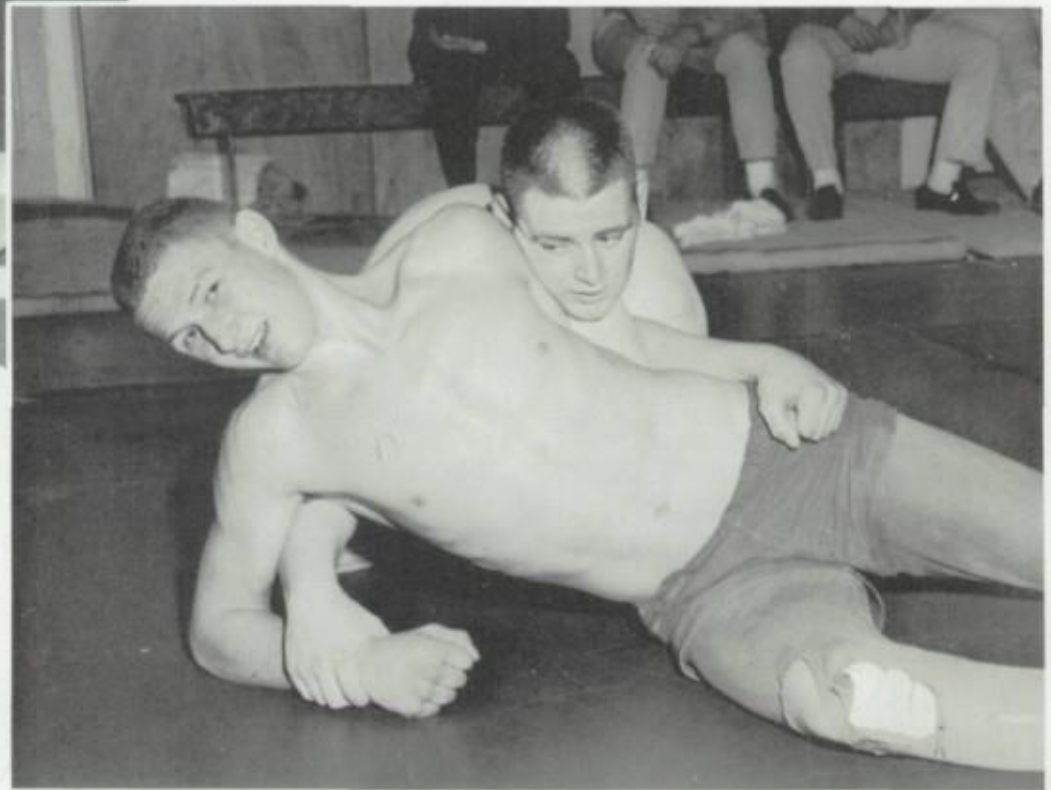

Bulldog Wrestlers Capture State and District Titles;

Wrestlers SEATED are: Haynes, Thomas, Hanson, Erickson, Smalley, Vanderpol, Aiken, Thompson, and Manager Smith. SECOND ROW: S. Thomas, Garner, Anderson, Masonholder, Werkhoven, Slostad, Gray, Hunter, and Manager K. Thomas. THIRD ROW: Greenwald, Lanata, Iverson, Hayes, E. Struthers, M. Struthers, Widen, Norris, and McMoran.

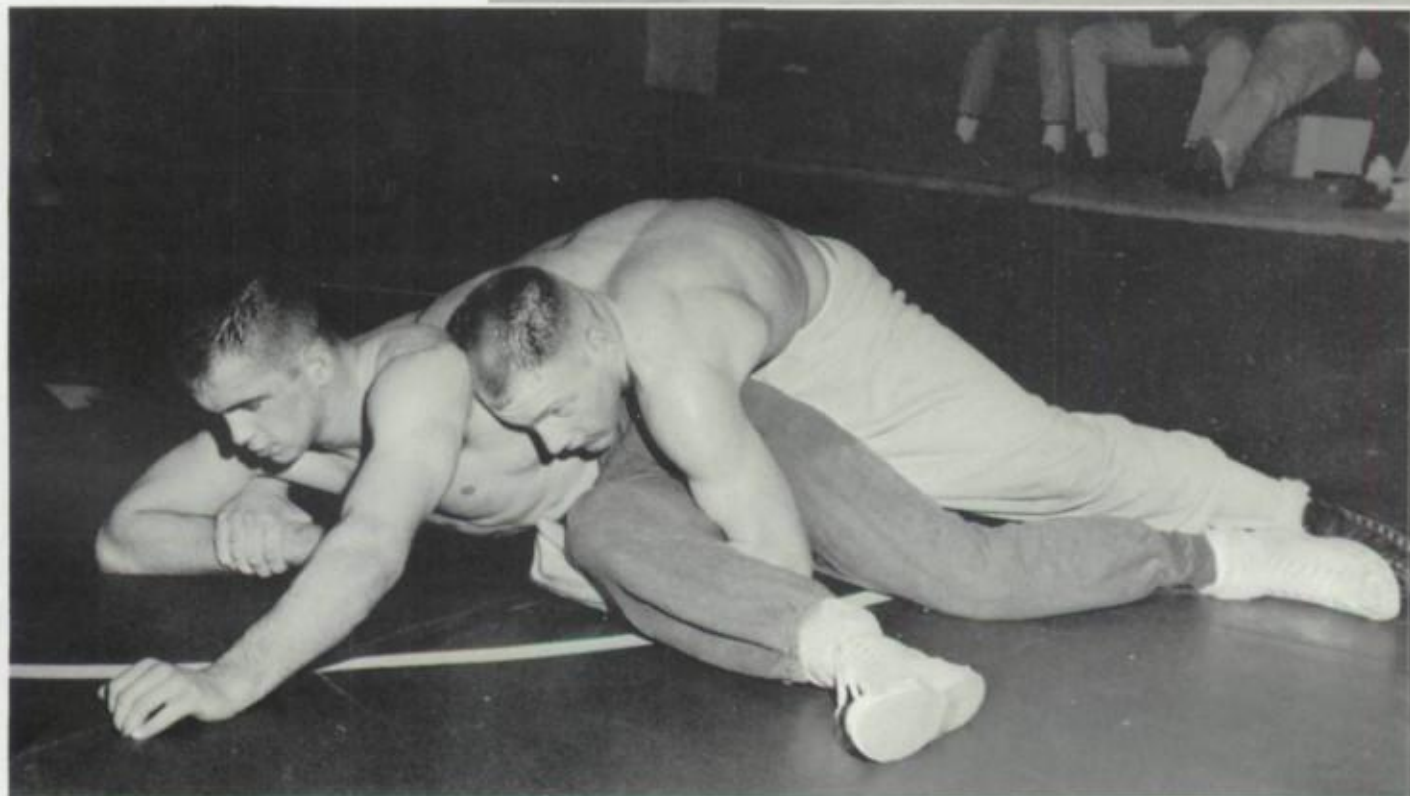

Ending a perfect season with a perfect record, the Bulldog wrestling team won the State Championship at Pullman after capturing the Northwest League crown for the second consecutive year. Five of the six wrestlers that gave Mount Vernon second place in the wrestling tournament in 1961 were back to defend their honor. Rob Thompson, Dave Haynes, Don Anderson and Scott Masonholder got seconds, and John Slostad a first at State. Alan Erickson, Bulldog senior, was one of the team's standouts by winning all of his league matches. Don Vanderpol, John Smalley, Mike Aiken, Ray Thomas, Steve Hanson and LeRoy Werkhoven rounded out the first string wrestlers and helped make MVHS wrestling team a definite threat for district and state honors.

Bring Trophies to Mount Vernon High School

Frosh wrestlers competed this year against frosh teams from Burlington, Oak Harbor, Sedro-Woolley, Anacortes, Concrete and Whatcom Junior High School of Bellingham. Jim Erickson and Mike Fisher went through the season undefeated, and John Spear lost only one match.

Dave Haynes and Don Anderson warm up for the district meet by perfecting wrestling holds.

Records fell as the powerful Bulldog wrestling team walked away with first place in the Northwest District wrestling tournament. The records were: Most points scored in a tournament — 115, won by the widest margin — 115—91, placed the most in the tournament — 11, had the most qualify for the State Tournament, and had the most district champions — 5. These champions were Alan Erickson, 120-pound division; Rob Thompson, 154; Scott Masonholder, 175; Leroy Werkhoven, 191; and John Slostad in the Unlimited weight division. John Smally, 112; David Haynes, 145; and Don Anderson, 165, all took second place and qualified for state. Slostad, Werkhoven, Masonholder, Anderson, Thompson, and Haynes are kneeling at left. Standing are Hanson, Thomas, Aiken, Erickson, Smalley and Vanderpol.

Varsity wrestlers are, KNEELING, Slostad, Werkhoven, Masonholder, Anderson, Thompson, and Haynes. STANDING are Hanson, Thomas, Aiken, Erickson, Smalley, and Vanderpol.

Mount Vernon High School Swimmers, Divers and

Co-Captain, Bob Robarge

As a team with spirit, determination, and desire, the 1962 MVHS Swimmers did an excellent job. Led by almost all seniors, the team's biggest victory was over the arch rival, Bellingham, in the last meet of the season, by a score of 54-51. The loss of Jim Myers late in the season due to illness greatly hurt the Bullfish in their attempt for district and state honors. Jim and Bob Robarge, both three year lettermen, were this year's co-captains. Jeff Shriner, also a three year letterman, was a top contender for state honors.

Co-Captain, Jim Myers

FIRST ROW: Downs, Etherington, Koster, Shriner. SECOND ROW: Barber, Shelby, LaMay, Robarge. These boys are hopeful for state honors.

Relay Teams Hit 1962 with a Big Splash of Success

At center, MVHS coach, Perry Brown got a little wet when his Swim team playfully rioted and threw him into the pool.

Randy Etherington, Randy Koster, and Bob Robarge, above, wind up a day's turnout with the 20-yard butterfly.

Below, another Mount Vernon diver, Bob Myers, comes out of a full-gainer to complete another excellent dive.

Cross Country Team Runs with Wings on Their Feet

Coached again by Joe Murphy, the Cross-country team had another successful season. After winning all of their league meets, but one, the Bulldog runners ran away with first place in the district meet for the second year in a row. To top off the season the Bulldogs placed thirteenth out of a field of forty teams in the State Cross-country meet in Seattle. Graduating Seniors will take a big part out of next fall's team as four of the top six runners are graduating this Spring. These Seniors are: Co-captains: Dave Olson and Vic Rasmussen; Wayne Burkland, Don VanderPol. The other two runners are Juniors, Mike Mowrer and Hugh Flannery.

A number of fine golfers turned out this spring to work under Coach Mowrer. Seniors: Partington, Young, Gordon, Prutzman, and Junior Karr held the hopes of a promising season. Besides regular matches, they participate in district and state golf matches.

Tennis, Golf Teams Work Hard to Take Top Honors

Pre-season warm up finds Carl Ness and Jan Jaeger practicing doubles and Tony Bjorn singles.

Mount Vernon High's hopes for a country tennis championship this spring rested almost entirely on seniors. Carl Ness and Jan Jaeger, both seniors, held the number one doubles spot while Tony Bjorn and Randy Moen, also seniors, battled it out for the number one singles spot. Richard Dixon, in his second year of coaching, did a fine job with the tennis team this spring.

With Resolve, a Field

Coach Joe Murphy started the season with a team of returning lettermen and looked forward to a great year in track. Although there was no particular star on the team, the entire group worked hard to uphold the reputation earned by former track teams at M.V.H.S.

Any good team has to have a back log of experience and the Bulldogs were not lacking in it. Returning senior lettermen were Wayne Burkland in the mile, Clint Stroebel in the relay, Vic Rasmussen in the 880, Brent Carpenter in the broad jump, Pat Farrell in the high jump, George Johnson in the javelin, and Jim Shelby in the discus.

Backing up the seniors were these junior lettermen: Bill Montgomery and Hugh Flanary in the 880, Danny Raymond and Ken Needles in the 440 and Jerry Ellis in the discus.

George Johnson, left, gets set to throw the shop-put.

Wayne Burkland, Brent Carpenter, Pat Farrell, and Clint Stroebel, BELOW, are poised for a dash.

Brent Carpenter, BOTTOM LEFT, picks up momentum for taking a practice broad jump, while Bill Montgomery and Dave Prutzman, BOTTOM, round the final turn neck and neck in the 440.

Wayne Burkland and Clint Stroebe, above, work hard in practice preparing for the week's track meet. Both are senior lettermen and participated in track for four years.

Pat Farrell, right, prepares for a jump over the high jump bar.

FIRST ROW: Oftebro, McIlraith, Vaughn, D. Anderson, Rimmer, Dills, Nelson, Rice.
SECOND ROW: Coach Day, Gudmunson, Stewart, Young, Andrews, Crawford, Faller, Dean, Cheek, Pelland, L. Anderson, Olson.

Fourteen lettermen including seven first string players of the 1961 team were on hand when Coach Joe Day put out the call for baseball turnout. With experience in every position, the 1962 baseball team appeared to be headed for a successful season. The returning lettermen were Don Anderson, catcher-outfielder; John Dean, first base; Jeff Rice, second base; Jim Cheek, short stop; Larry Anderson, third base; Don Dills, left field; Mike Rimmer, center field; and Dennis Young, left field. Doing the pitching chores for the Bulldogs were Jerry Pelland, Jerry Olson, and Jack Andrews. Other lettermen were Jock McIlraith, Glen Faller, and Jay Nelson.

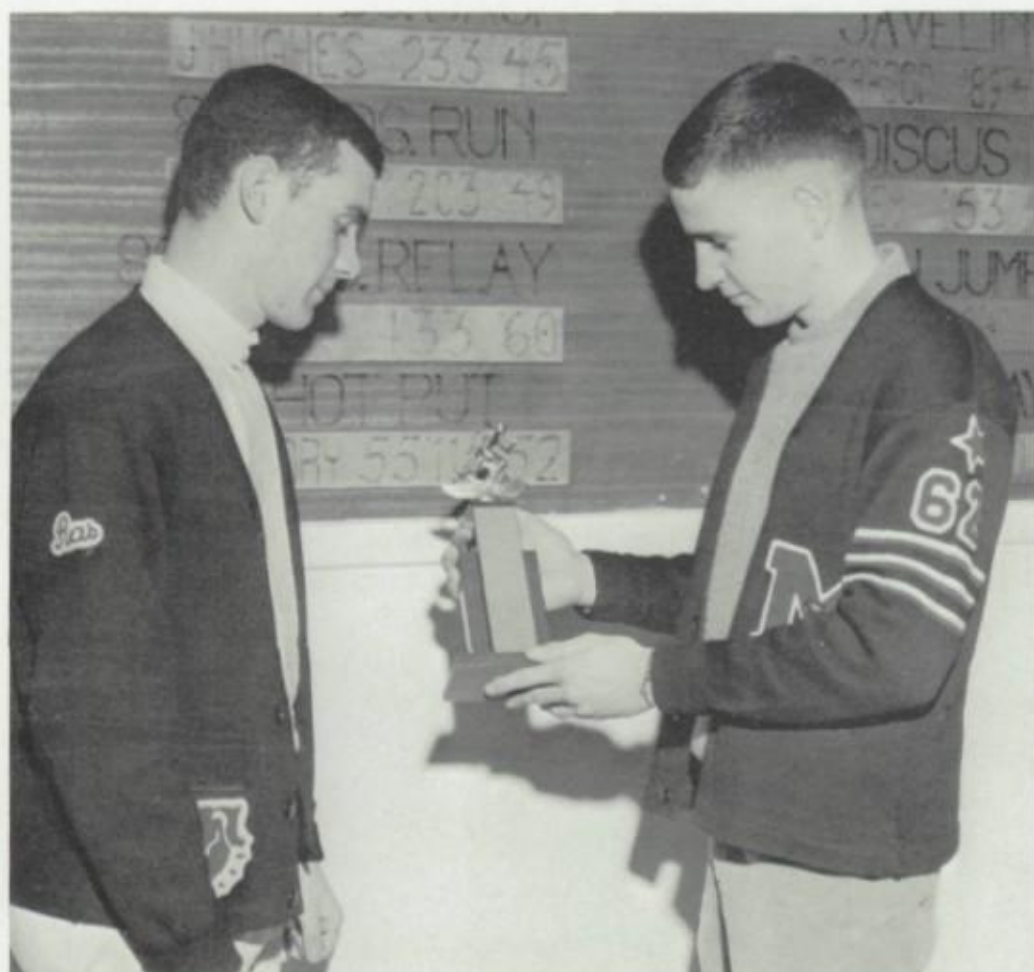

We Salute Those Athletes Who Earned Top Honors

These boys were chosen to lead their classmates in the various sports of our school. They represent leadership, sportsmanship, ability, and patience. Awards were given to boys playing football for gentleman athlete, blocking, inspirational, and for winning positions on all-northwest and state teams.

Today's Education Has Built Tomorrow's Foundation

Day, N.T.
I wish everybody wouldn't rank my one H. I'll have ya a muff and I'll have a few drag, we made through Well, a.k. and P.E. still have a class from P.E. I hope we have many scores together. Good luck to a swell classes guy. See ya
this summer

Dear Tom,

This year has certainly gone fast. It all was so much fun & kind of hate to see it go because I don't want things to change. Next year we'll be Juniors and the Seniors now will be gone. This summer is off to an awful start weatherwise. How can our class do stuff to keep together in the rain!

You've really done a swell job on the car, Tom. It's really come a long way. I didn't think I'd really like it after it was painted but now that it's done and I can see what it looks like I like it even better. That shows you how far ahead I can see and what an imagination I've got. (It's hard)

Everything we've done this year was fun, parties, dances, shows, and the skating party. Max Hale may pick up its foundation and run next time we show up. Actually we were very well behaved for our members. And then there's the mart. The doors will probably wear out soon with everyone going in and out constantly. It's the class of '64's A & W or even better.

I want to wish you the best luck and the best of everything all throughout all the years.

Lots of Love,
Janet

Youngest,
Well fellow golfer the years over. This summer we are going to have to make a supreme effort to keep the ~~and~~ ~~books~~ going. We'll also have to spend many hours at the bowling alley.  Breeds Only 2 more years left!!
I hope that we will always be friends —
As Always,
Kris Leander

The Youngest.

Well Tom we are just about done. I hope to see you at some parties this summer. We will have a riot. See ya at Partytime
